

GAR Foundation Communications Guidelines

GAR Foundation encourages your organization to publicize your grant award. Please adhere to these guidelines to ensure consistency in all communications.

If you have been notified of a grant award, Congratulations! Please do not announce your grant award until GAR has made a public announcement. We require that you share all communication materials regarding your grant award with us before you publish. Send press releases, newsletter articles, e-blasts, brochures or any other promotional materials to GAR's Communications Manager at dyounis@garfdn.org for approval or to request to use the Foundation's logo.

Written and spoken reference

Written reference should appear as 'GAR Foundation'. For subsequent references, you may use 'the Foundation' or 'GAR'. Please do not include the article 'the' before 'GAR Foundation' and do not include periods between the letters.

Spoken reference of GAR should be spelled out, as in "je-a-är" and not referred to as "gar".

Logo Usage

You must contact us to request our logo for use in your materials.
